

CBC

Tuesday September 23, 2008

The Ladies of Jazz on the Performance Hour

This Saturday on CBC Radio's Performance Hour, three Newfoundland singers join forces for a concert honoring the great voices of jazz music. The Ladies of Jazz celebrates Billie Holiday, Shirley Horn, Roberta Flack, Peggy Lee, and other idols of the jazz era.

The show stars Janet Cull, Dana Parsons and Heather Bambrick on vocals, with a band led by Bill Brennan. They perform such classics as A Fine Romance, Peel Me a Grape, The Very Thought of You, and Bye-Bye Blackbird.

That's Saturday, September 27, on CBC Radio One. The show begins at 5:35 pm, 5:05 in Labrador.

The Performance Hour is CBC Radio's showcase for music and the arts in Newfoundland and Labrador. It's heard every Saturday afternoon at 5:35, 5:05 in Labrador, on CBC Radio One. Listeners to CBC Radio Two can hear the show on Saturday mornings at 11:35.